

Assistance Animals

Accepted types of valid accreditation

Travelling with an assistance animal

Assistance animals with a valid form of accepted accreditation can travel free on all NSW metro, train, coach, bus, ferry, light rail, taxi, private bus and private ferry services. The accepted types of valid accreditation are:

- Assistance Animal Permit issued by TfNSW
- Accreditation from organisations endorsed by TfNSW
- Interstate accreditation recognised by TfNSW

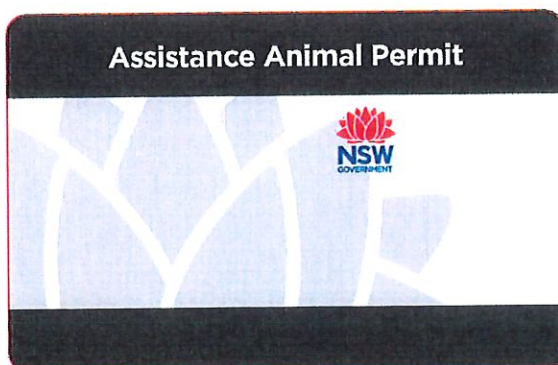

All assistance animals and their handlers must carry valid accreditation as proof of entitlement when travelling at all times.

Assistance Animal Permit issued by TfNSW

Old Assistance Animal Permit

New Assistance Animal Permit

This permit is to be used only by the person named on the card. The animal represented on the card is entitled to travel on Public Transport services within NSW.

This permit remains the property of Transport for NSW and is subject to the terms and conditions of the Transport Administration Act 1988.

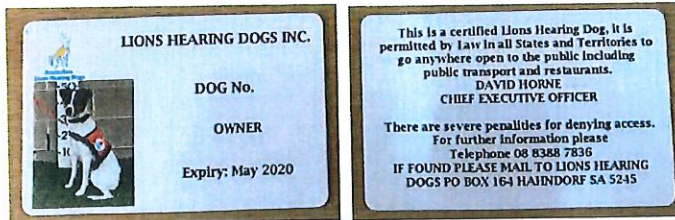

It does not entitle the cardholder to free travel. A valid ticket must be held at all times.

Should the permit be lost, stolen, damaged or expired, contact Transport for NSW Concessions through transportnsw.info/concessions-feedback

Accreditation from organisations endorsed by TfNSW

(Images supplied and used with permission)

Australian Lions Hearing Dogs

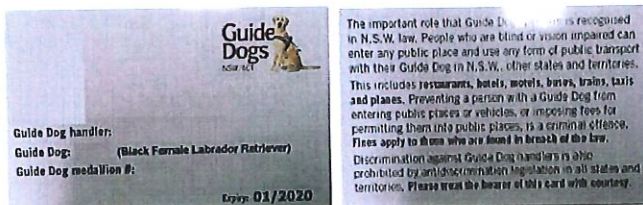

Identification card (front and back)

Marked vest and leash
(animals in-training labelled with L plates)

Guide Dogs Australia

Identification card (front and back)

Leather harness and handle
(animals in-training wear marked vest)

Medallion (front and back)

MindDog Australia

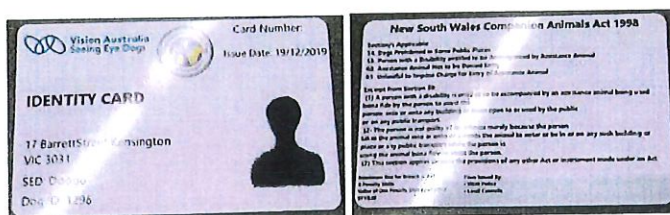

Identification card (front and back)

Marked vest
(animals in-training labelled 'trainee')

Vision Australia Seeing Eye Dogs

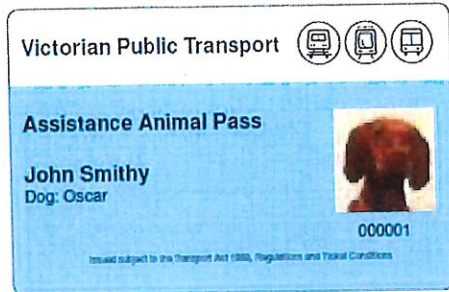

Identification card (front and back)

Marked harness and handle
(animals in-training may not have handle)

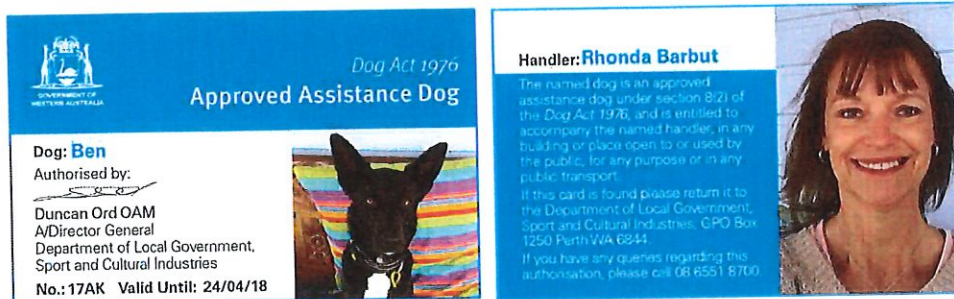

Interstate accreditation recognised by Transport for NSW

Victorian Public Transport Assistance Animal Pass

Identification card (front)

Western Australia Department of Local Government Public Access Permit

Identification card (front and back)

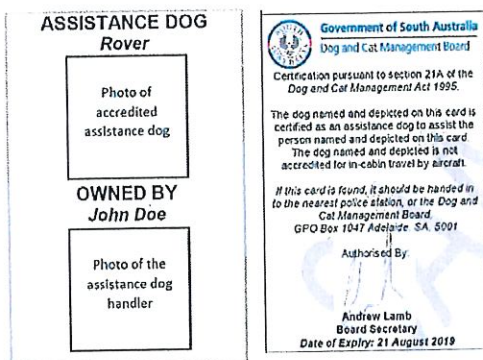

Queensland Government Handler Identity Card

Identification card (front and back)

Alternative Identification card (front)

South Australian Dog and Cat Management Board Pass

Identification card (front and back)

The following passes accepted in South Australia under the Dog and Cat Management Act 1995 (SA):

Assistance Dogs Australia

Identification card (front and back)

Righteous Pups Australia

Identification card (front and back)

Royal Society for the Blind

Guide Dog – Identification card (front and back)

Assistance Dog – Identification card (front and back)

Trainer – Identification card (front and back)